Run Date: 06/30/2005

(U//FOUO) Leave the delivery to us! Intelink's news service takes care of the organization and delivery of information so you don't have to! Intelligence Community Delivery Services (ICDS) is a web-based service that delivers customized intelligence to you, significantly reducing your time spent searching for intelligence products. This powerful tool provides pre-arranged region and topic categories and flexible search options with a variety of presentation formats. The data is current, the interface intuitive, and you can create your profiles in minutes. It's here now! Try it!

(NOTE: You must be a US citizen and have an Intelink account to access ICDS from NSANet.)
