Run Date: 10/09/2003

(U//FOUO) Would you like to work at the very center of the U.S. military's intelligence operations, dealing with high-level customers in support of military operations around the world? If so, then a tour as the NSA Senior Representative to the National Military Joint Intelligence Center (NMJIC) Watch is for you. This is a watch team that provides 24-hour SIGINT support to the J2 (Directorate for Intelligence) at the Pentagon. We currently have two positions available.

(U//FOUO) The shift schedule allows plenty of time for family and opportunities for self-development. And if that isn't enough, you even get a within grade increase! If a PCS tour is on your agenda, please glance over our Vacancy announcement F2V0506-03 (the dosing date has been extended) and see if this is the PCS job you've been looking for. Interested parties should contact [REDACTED]@nsa, or at [REDACTED]. We look forward to hearing from you!
