

(U//FOUO) SINIO Summer Seminar: The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, An Eye-Witness Perspective

FROM: Marilyn Maines
Deputy Chief, Strategic Intelligence Issues (S17)
Run Date: 07/08/2004

(S) The SINIO Council and the National Cryptologic School are pleased to present another in the series of Strategic Intelligence Issue Seminars for Summer 2004. "The Israeli-Palestinian Conflict, An Eye-Witness Perspective" will be presented by [REDACTED] SINIO for Near East/South Asia, on Tuesday, 13 July, from 1130-1300 in Room 2N044. Advance registration is required - instructions follow.

(U) Course Overview:

(TS//SI) Among the most enduring and enigmatic challenges in the Middle East is the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Decades of struggle, often violent, stems from centuries of cultural, religious and tribal clash. Resolution is key to a wider Mideast peace, but is it realistically achievable? The SINIO for Near East & South Asia has recently returned from a 3 year tour as SLO Tel Aviv -- hear his perspectives on this fascinating, but sad, situation that is rarely left out of any discussion of international events."

(U) Registration Information:

(U//FOUO) Advance registration is required; eligible SID students interested in attending this brown-bag session should enroll for class number 7245 using Peoplesoft. Enrollment will be first come, first served.
