

(U) The 'International Challenge' -- 15 March

FROM: [REDACTED]
International Affairs Institute
Run Date: 03/11/2005

(U//FOUO) Each year, the International Affairs Institute sponsors the annual International Challenge, an unclassified written contest which consists of 100 multiple-choice questions on the following topics: international and domestic affairs, politics, economics, history, current events, the military, and geography.

(U//FOUO) This event is designed to promote interest in international affairs while challenging the wits and knowledge of agency employees in an enjoyable fashion. Cash prizes are awarded to the participants achieving the first ($75), second ($50), and third ($25) highest scores. This year's Challenge will be held on 15 March, 1430-1600 in the OPS 1 cafeteria.

(U//FOUO) Pre-registration is not required -- except for field participants, who should contact [REDACTED] in advance to make necessary arrangements.
