(U//FOUO) Are you interested in a temporary promotion? The CSG Joint Staff located in the National Military Joint Intelligence Center (NMJIC), is the very heart of the U.S. Military's intelligence operations at the Pentagon. There are three openings on the 24-hour operations desk for an NSA Representative to the NMJIC. You'll work with a select group of military and civilian intelligence officers from all services and other intelligence agencies.

(U//FOUO) An assignment to the CSG Joint Staff brings multiple benefits. Grade 11 and 12 applicants selected as CSG Watch Officers will be given a temporary promotion for the duration of the assignment. Grade 13 selectees will receive a permanent step increase. You may also qualify for real estate entitlements for this field PCS. A tour in the CSG Joint Staff is an excellent career-enhancing opportunity and makes a nice addition to your resume. The Pentagon itself is a fascinating place and a living museum, and it's just one Metro stop away from Pentagon City, where you'll find good food and great shopping.
