(U//FOUO) I am pleased to announce that Analysis and Production has filled a number of its vacant leadership positions:

- [REDACTED] is the Deputy Production Manager for Regional Targets.
- [REDACTED] assumes her duties as the Deputy Production Manager for International Crime and Narcotics.
- Wendy Allen takes over as the Deputy Production Manager for the Russia.
- [REDACTED] becomes the Deputy Production Manager for Geospatial Exploitation.

(U//FOUO) Please join me in congratulating these folks on their selection. I know they will all do well in helping us to meet the nation's demands for SIGINT. Additionally, I would like to thank [REDACTED] for her great service as Production Manager for International Security Issues as she moves to new challenges as the Deputy Chief of the SID Operations and Support Staff (S02). We will miss her.
